Frederick Horniman, who founded the museum, wanted “to bring the world to Forest Hill”!
Take a trip around the world by exploring our gardens.
Can you fill in the blanks and complete the map?
Around the World in 8 Plants

Frederick Horniman, who founded the museum, wanted to “bring the world to Forest Hill”.

Take a trip around the world by exploring our gardens!

Can you fill in the blanks and complete the map?

This plant is called a ‘Champion’.

Find it near the fruit trees in the food garden and fill in its name here:

Find this berry opposite the fruit trees. It was created by crossing raspberries, blackberries and loganberries.

It was grown by a man called Rudolph Boysen in California.

What colour dye does it make?

Write the colour on the map.

You can find a tree like the one above outside the Food Garden. It is called a Cypress.

It is found in the Everglades, Florida.

Find the Bulbs, Roots & Tubers in our Food Garden.

This plant above is a Chinese...

Find Aloe Vera in the Medicinal Garden.

Mark where it comes from on the map.

Find this plant is in the Dye Garden.

Fill in the name on the map.

Frederick Horniman, who founded the museum, wanted to “bring the world to Forest Hill”.

Take a trip around the world by exploring our gardens!

Can you fill in the blanks and complete the map?

This plant below is called a Buckthorn, it can be found in the Dye Garden.

Find it and use its full name to help you mark where in the world it comes from on the map.

Find Aloe Vera in the Medicinal Garden.

Mark where it comes from on the map.

The Eucalyptus below might help if you have a blocked nose!

Find it in the Medicinal Garden.

What colour dye does it make?

Write the colour on the map.

Find it near the fruit trees in the food garden and fill in its name here:

This plant below is called a Buckthorn, it can be found in the Dye Garden.

Find this berry opposite the fruit trees. It was created by crossing raspberries, blackberries and loganberries.

It was grown by a man called Rudolph Boysen in California.

What colour dye does it make?

Write the colour on the map.

You can find a tree like the one above outside the Food Garden. It is called a Cypress.

It is found in the Everglades, Florida.

Find the Bulbs, Roots & Tubers in our Food Garden.

This plant above is a Chinese...

Find Aloe Vera in the Medicinal Garden.

Mark where it comes from on the map.

The Eucalyptus below might help if you have a blocked nose!

Find it in the Medicinal Garden.

What colour dye does it make?

Write the colour on the map.